➤ Venue

The Society's Dinner will again take place on 11th November 2015 in the Great Hall at Lincoln's Inn.

What you said about 2014

"The atmosphere was spot on – it felt like a grand event, but one that didn't take itself too seriously – it was fun."

"Good food, good wine and good company in a superb setting."

"The venue was such a great change from, and much better than, a hotel."

➤ Speaker

Anthony Arter (Pensions Ombudsman Designate).

Distinguished pension lawyer Anthony Arter becomes Pensions Ombudsman on May 25th. The Dinner will provide an early opportunity for an update on the work of the Pensions Ombudsman and to hear the new Ombudsman's views.

➤ Presentation of the Society's Journalists of the Year Awards

These awards will recognise one journalist from each of the national press and pensions trade media, who has made an outstanding contribution to pensions journalism in 2015, as voted by the Society's Members.

➤ Sponsorship

This year, we are again offering our Members the opportunity to associate themselves with the prestige and success of the Dinner, through sponsorship.

THE SOCIETY OF PENSION PROFESSIONALS

We would welcome your sponsorship of one or more of the following:

- ❖ The printed list of those attending, available to the guests on arrival.
- ❖ The menu, at each place at the Dinner
- ❖ The Society's National Pensions Journalist of the Year Award
- ❖ The Society's Pensions Trade Journalist of the Year Award

The sponsorship amount for each is £1,500 (VAT is not chargeable). Please contact me as soon as possible to seize these opportunities.

Discounted tickets are available at £195.00 per head. The price includes pre-dinner cocktails, a five-course meal, half a bottle of wine with dinner, and a liqueur with coffee.

As ever, we are keen to encourage "new blood" at the Dinner and ensure that it continues to offer the broadest possible range of networking opportunities for those attending. To that end, if your organisation has never previously been represented at the Dinner, the person making the booking will benefit from a discounted special price of £155.00, as will one additional guest.

Tickets will be sent to you towards the end of October.

It goes without saying that this event also makes an important contribution to the Society's funds and the valuable work it does on behalf of your industry.

We very much hope to see you at the Dinner. If you have any questions about the event, please contact Carla Smidt or John Mortimer on 020 7353 1688.
