SPP NEWS UPDATE

OCTOBER 2021

Introduction from the CEO

Welcome to October's SPP News update. I hope that you have had a good and productive month.

SPP is now upscaling its range of events, with five scheduled over November and December. We will focus on ensuring that the annual programme is not just greater in volume, but that it reflects the unique breadth of our membership in terms of content and relevance. As ever, your ideas for topics are welcomed.

Our response to DWP's Notifiable Events consultation raises concern that the requirement to notify when a decision in-principle is made creates real uncertainty for corporates. The risk of failing to correctly notify and the potential exposure to significant fines underlines the need to get these changes right.

Wishing you a good month ahead and sincere thanks for your continued support.

Fred Emden, SPP CEO

SPP in the News

Following the Society's work on Dashboard ERI in September, Pensions Expert reported the Pensions Dashboard Programme will launch a new research in answer to industry calls for more data clarity.

SPP's reaction to DWP's consultation on Notifiable Events featured in Pensions Age.

Portfolio Institutional featured SPP member Sebastian Reger's think piece on Illiquid assets and liquidity risk.

In our regular View from the SPP column in Pensions Age (p.22), Shayala McRae (SPP Legislation Committee) shared her thoughts on the debate around the triple lock.

Committee and Consultation News

The Society responded to DWP's consultation on Strengthening The Pensions Regulator's Powers: Notifiable Events (Amendments) Regulations 2021. Our particular thanks to Ian Steward, BDO, for his work on this.

We responded to PPF's consultation on the 2022/23 levy rules.

Other key matters under review include:

- IFoA's consultation on Proposed Changes to the Regulatory Framework on Climate Change and Sustainability
- TPR's discussion paper on driving Value for Money in defined contribution pensions
- DWP's consultation on Climate and Investment Reporting
- TPR's consultation on New enforcement policies

Your views on any of these consultations would be welcomed. Please note that you can find responses SPP has submitted to consultations in our Consultations Responses area on the website.

SPP Staffing

We warmly welcome Laura Santamarina as Events Manager, charged with supporting this next phase of our membership event portfolio.

SPP says goodbye to Lorin Lassan next month, who has done great work for us on our events and design. We wish her the very best for the future.
